

Le Meurice
Rue de Rivoli, Paris
Dorchester Collection

With views of the nearby Tuileries Garden, Le Meurice has been ranked among the most elegant hotels in the world for almost two centuries. Combining exceptional decoration, style and quality with contemporary chic - including spectacular new interiors by Philippe Starck, Le Meurice embodies the perfect French palace hotel and remains one of the most beautiful addresses in Paris.

Rooms and suites

At Le Meurice, opulence and comfort are not confined to the hotel's public areas alone. Every room and suite is a spacious, peaceful oasis of calm, providing guests with the ultimate in luxury. Each of the seven floors has a distinct style, with 160 beautifully appointed rooms decorated in a style redolent of Louis XVI. All rooms feature exquisite marble bathrooms with shower and bath, with complimentary bathrobes and slippers. Each room is soundproofed and has air conditioning, high-speed Internet access, multiple telephone lines and cable television.

There are 45 suites and junior suites, most of which overlook the Tuileries Garden and have spectacular views of the Paris skyline. On the first floor, our two Presidential Suites offer high ceilings and sumptuous furnishing throughout. Our Prestige Suites - on the second and third floors of the hotel, have their own beautifully designed living rooms. The Marco Polo Suite on the sixth floor is a uniquely atmospheric apartment with an exotic décor evoking the journeys of the 13th century traveller, whilst our Belle Etoile Suite - on the seventh floor, has a vast private terrace with spectacular panoramic views of Paris.

The hotel has six specially adapted rooms for disabled guests with full facilities, as well as a special entrance in the hotel lobby. Non-smoking rooms are located on the third and fourth floors of the hotel and are available upon request.

Restaurants and bars

Restaurant le Meurice

Our three Michelin-starred restaurant serves Haute French cuisine in an elegant dining room with magnificent décor originally inspired by the Salon de la Paix at the Château de Versailles, and reinterpreted in 2007 by Philippe Starck. Acclaimed Head Chef Yannick Alléno offers a modern menu that is both audacious and unpretentious, remaining faithful to the true flavours and the art of exquisite presentation.

Restaurant Le Dali

Responding to the mood of today, our three Michelin-star Chef Yannick Alléno reinvents traditional cuisine, offering a menu free from unnecessary excess but with all the pleasure. Taking both traditional and modern recipes to new heights, Alléno makes your gastronomic wishes come true in a setting where the spirit of Dali reigns supreme.

Bar 228

The quintessential rendez-vous for discerning Parisians, Bar 228 offers a warm and sophisticated environment, reinterpreted by Philippe Starck in December 2007. With soft, sumptuous furnishings and details, and comfortable seating throughout, it's the perfect place to unwind and enjoy one of our decadent cocktails, such as the "Starcky" or "228".

Spa

Spa Valmont

Located on the mezzanine level, The Spa Valmont for Le Meurice is a tranquil idyll with natural accents in marble, wood, stone and glass. To offer our clientele the luxury of highly efficient skin-care and the very best anti-aging treatments, we chose leading cosmetics brand, Valmont. Thanks to high performance research and development, Valmont products benefit from the rich natural resources of the Swiss Alps and the latest findings in biotechnology.

Valmont treatments are complimented by 'Thermes Marins de Saint-Malo' body treatments and make-up 'By Terry' - for a 'Day Glow' or 'Night Lights' makeover, or even for the Bride to be. The Spa provides a range of facilities including treatment cabins, Jacuzzi, steam rooms for up to six people and separate changing rooms for women and men, each including sauna, showers and a fitness centre.

Banqueting and meetings

If you're planning a special celebration or an important business function, why settle for the ordinary? With five sumptuously appointed banqueting rooms your event could exude the sophisticated luxury that has become synonymous with the Hotel Le Meurice. Elegant and flexible, three of our rooms connect - including the ceremonial Salon Pompadour, accommodating up to 450 people for a range of receptions and events.

Salon Pompadour

The perfect backdrop for contemporary gatherings such as fashion shows and wedding banquets, the Pompadour's fabulous nineteenth century décor evokes the grandeur of Versailles and the rich heritage of this elegant hotel. For larger events such as diplomatic functions and fashion shows, the Pompadour connects with the adjacent Tuileries and Jeu de Paume Salons, accommodating up to 450 people.

Salon Tuileries

With its own entrance on the Rue du Mont Thabor, this warm, inviting salon will charm your guests with its exquisite fresco wall paintings. Comfortable and flexible, it's perfect for receptions and small meetings.

Salon Jeu de Paume

With evocative Art Deco interiors, this room benefits from natural daylight and is an ideal venue for a wide range of events including presentations, luncheons, dinners, cocktail parties, meetings and conferences.

Discover Paris

Paris is one of the most romantic, stylish and exciting cities in the world, and our guests are perfectly placed to discover its myriad treasures. The Tuileries Garden, Place de la Concorde and the Louvre are on our doorstep; but venture further and you will find the world's finest museums and galleries, theatres, a shopping heaven and exceptional restaurants.

Restaurants

Synonymous with luxury and the French art of living, the Hotel Le Meurice is a magical, tranquil place, where the refined splendour of 18th-century architecture meets the latest in contemporary comfort and elegance.

As the seasons pass, the creations of three-star Chef Yannick Alléno come to life at our renowned restaurant, le Meurice. Drawing his inspiration from the myriad gastronomic treasures of the Parisian region, this French Chef adds a daring touch to traditional dishes, creating a delicious, whimsical link between past and present.

For a more informal and casual dinner the Place du Marché Saint-Honoré – only five minutes walk from the Hotel Le Meurice, is full of excellent restaurants and bars.

Shopping

Spend some time in Paris and the Hotel Le Meurice gradually unveils the secrets of this timeless city. Located in the very heart of Paris, the hotel is only a short walk from an exceptional selection of luxury stores and boutiques on Place Vendôme and Rue Saint-Honoré. A short distance from the banking and financial district, the hotel is also close to some of Paris's most exclusive shops such as Hermès, Chanel, Dior, Armani and Gucci, and some of the city's best kept secrets like Goyard, Carlos Miele, Marc Jacobs, Miu Miu, and the ideal gift shop, Colette, where you'll find the latest fashion, accessories, books and music.

You will find these exclusive shops and much more on Rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré, Rue Royale and at Palais-Royal. The finest department stores in Paris - including Galeries Lafayette and Printemps, are only a fifteen-minute walk away on Boulevard Haussmann, while distinguished jewellers such as Mauboussin, Chaumet, Boucheron and Cartier have their boutiques on the glamorous Place Vendôme, only a five-minute walk from the hotel.

Culture

Within walking distance of numerous cultural jewels, the hotel is adjacent to the Musée du Louvre, the Galerie Nationale du Jeu de Paume at Place de la Concorde, the Musée des Arts Décoratifs and the Musée d'Orsay, just across the river.

A brief metro ride will take you to the Eiffel Tower, Notre-Dame de Paris and the Place des Vosges - Paris's oldest square, and a host of museums and galleries including the Picasso Museum at the heart of the Marais district and one of the world's finest museums of contemporary art, the Musée Centre Pompidou-Beaubourg.

Entertainment

The Hotel Le Meurice is at the heart of Parisian cultural life, in between theatres such as the Théâtre du Châtelet – with its delightful programme of opera and classical concerts, the Opéra Garnier and Opéra Bastille for ballet and opera, and the Opéra Comique for lyric theatre and drama.

If you need a break from the sightseeing, enjoy the relaxing atmosphere of the Tuileries Garden or go for a ride on one of Le Meurice's green bicycles. Imagine the freedom of taking a leisurely ride along the Seine, the sun shining overhead and a gourmet picnic to look forward to.

Fitness fanatics can start the day with a quick jog in the Tuileries Garden but as evening falls it's all about unwinding and people-watching, as the cafés and bars around the hotel come to life. Choose from a wide range of delightful spots including the Buddha Bar and facing the Pyramid of the Musée du Louvre, Café Marly.
